GOOD MORNING,
Glad you could be with us today!

Colossians 3:15 "And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful."

The first Sunday of December has arrived, and for many that means Thanksgiving is now long past in the rear-view mirror. Every year it seems as though Thanksgiving loses focus as the world's focus shifts rapidly from October's festivities to December's. Prayerfully however, the attention of the saved shouldn't be dictated by the frivolous marketing of the world, but rather by Holy Scripture! The Lord says to be thankful - and not just for a day or week in November. As the attention of many turn to the wonderful celebration of Christ's birth, may we not forget to remain a people who are known for being a thankful people.
